

Thurs. Nov. 15

Dear Jimmy,

I forgot to tell you last time how much I like the pictures you took of my wedding! I was so glad to see those, as they were the only ones that turned out. We are going to give copies of them to Mike's mother too.

Isn't it nice to have such a fine new President like Nixon? Actually I really feel the people deserve him and don't feel very bad about it. Herrmann won also you probably know. Also, the Democrats have the majority in the Senate again, so Mike will make $50 a day there for 7 days a week. I am going to be working also in the Ways and Means committee. I am so nervous because I am afraid I ~~will~~^{may} have to work for Durkin, and Mike says he dictates a mile a minute. Tonight I have my shorthand class. I have really been studying and passed all 3 of the others in my class along time ago, so they go pretty slow for me.

I am going to take out some records from the library to dictate from.
I am at home, and the sunset is so pretty out the window. That is one thing I miss at my apartment, a view.

You don't have much of a view either. Have you thought much about moving yet?

Maybe you should move into a boarding house.
That probably wouldn't be any fun, but I always have wondered what it would be like.

Mike and I are going down to Olympia this weekend to try and find a place to live in Jan. It's going to be real hard!

It is sure nice being out of work now! Saturday night we are having two couples over for dinner, so I have to start planning the meal. Mike is working for the P.O. now, but may be able to start working on the Ways & Means Committee early.

Mom is having pork chops & baked potatoes, tonight, so I better go eat. Doesn't that sound good?

Love,
Mary
